APPENDIX A: NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR STATE AUTHORIZATION RECIPROCITY AGREEMENTS (NC-SARA) NOTIFICATIONS AND PROCEDURES

Appendix National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (NC-SARA) Notifications and Procedures

Smith College School for Social Work has been approved to participate in the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements.

What is NC-SARA?
SSW participates in the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (NC-SARA). As a member organization, we are required to provide any student enrolled in one of our online courses with the following:

- Professional Licensure Disclosure (p. 1)
- SARA - Student Records Management Policy (p. 1)
- Student Complaint Procedures for Online Students (p. 2)

Professional Licensure Disclosure

Enrolled students and prospective students are strongly encouraged to contact their State’s licensure entity using the links provided to review all licensure requirements imposed by their state(s) of choice.

The School for Social Work has designed an educational program curriculum for its Master of Social Work program that if successfully completed is sufficient to meet the requirements for the first level of licensure at the master social work level in all of the states/territories of the United States.

Please visit the Association for Social Work Boards website (https://www.aswb.org/%C2%A0/) for a list of state-specific licensure requirements.

If you have any questions about your coursework as it pertains to licensure readiness, please contact the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs at sswdean@smith.edu

SARA - Student Records Management Policy

Smith College School for Social Work has established student records management policies that ensure the protection and security of student academic records. As a part of the Smith College Office of the Registrar, the SSW Registrar maintains in perpetuity the confidentiality, integrity, and security of all physical student academic records in its on-campus office. All digital records are maintained and secured in accordance with the following relevant Colleges’ policies governing records management and in conformance with the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Statewide Records Retention Schedule (http://www.sec.state.ma.us/ARC/arcpdf/MA_Statewide_Records_Schedule.pdf).

Acceptable Use Policy (http://www.smith.edu/its/policies/acceptable_use_policy.html): Comprehensive policy on the college’s standard for acceptable use of all institutional Information Technology related resources and services.

Other Resources

- Comprehensive Information Security Program (http://www.smith.edu/its/policies/cis_program.pdf): An umbrella document that brings together multiple information and data security processes and policies intended to enhance the overall security of the information that touches all aspects of the college.
- Staff Handbook (http://www.smith.edu/hr/handbook.php)
- Student Handbook (https://www.smith.edu/student-handbook/)

Safeguarding Student Records in the Event of College Closure

In the event of institutional closure, Smith College School for Social Work will comply with all requirements of the Massachusetts Department of Higher Education (Mass DHE) and the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education (NECHE) of the New England Association of Schools and Colleges to secure records and afford students access to their records. The institution would comply with all requirements including:

- NECHE’s Considerations When Closing and Institution of Higher Education (https://cihe.neasc.org/sites/cihe.neasc.org/files/downloads/POLICIES/Pp13-Considerations_When_Closing_an_Institution_of_Higher_Education.pdf);
Appendix A: National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (NC-SARA) Notifications and Procedures

- NECHE’s recommendations for Teach-Out Plans and Teach-Out Agreements (https://cihe.neasc.org/sites/cihe.neasc.org/files/downloads/POLICIES/Pp13a-Teach_Out_Plans_And_Agreements_Policy.pdf);
- Mass DHE’s Massachusetts Board of Higher Education’s Institutional Closure requirements (http://www.mass.edu/foradmin/closures/home.asp);
- Mass DHE’s Records from Closed Institutions (http://www.mass.edu/forstufam/diplomas/closedinst.asp) for transcripts and diploma information.

Questions or concerns regarding this policy should be directed to the Office of the Dean of Smith College School for Social Work at sswdean@smith.edu.

Student Complaint Procedures for Online Students

SSW Complaint Procedure: If any student participating in distance learning has a concern about the course and/or its instruction, they are asked to first try to resolve instructional concerns with the faculty member teaching the course. If the student concern is not resolved at this level, students are encouraged to meet with the chair of the curricular sequence or the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs who oversees the M.S.W. curriculum and its implementation. The ADAA may be reached through email at sswdean@smith.edu.

After all instructional or administrative remedies have been exhausted with the School, the student may submit a SARA Complaint with the Department of Education.

For Online Students Located in SARA Member States and Territories (https://nc-sara.org/directory/) After you have exhausted the complaint procedures made available by Smith College, located at smith.edu/academic-grievances, if your complaint has not been resolved, you may file a complaint with the DHE by using the SARA complaint form (https://www.mass.edu/foradmin/sara/complaints.asp). The DHE SARA complaint form (https://www.mass.edu/foradmin/sara/complaints.asp) should be used by students who are located in SARA member states and territories (https://nc-sara.org/directory/). This includes all students who are located in SARA member states and territories for the purposes of completing out-of-state learning placements, such as internships, practica, clinical experiences, etc. in SARA member states and territories outside Massachusetts.

For Massachusetts Residents and Online Students in Non-SARA Member States and Territories

After you have exhausted the complaint procedures described above, if your complaint has not been resolved, you may file a consumer complaint with the Massachusetts Attorney General’s Office (AGO) by using the consumer complaint form (https://www.mass.gov/how-to/file-a-consumer-complaint/). The AGO consumer complaint form (https://www.mass.gov/how-to/file-a-consumer-complaint/) should be used by students who are located in:

- Massachusetts
- Non-SARA Member States or Territories (e.g., California, Guam, etc.)

Additional information from the DHE’s SARA complaint website (https://www.mass.edu/foradmin/sara/complaints.asp) is below:

The SARA complaint process is as follows:

1. Students must first attempt to resolve their complaint using internal administrative procedures offered by the SARA institution.
2. After all administrative remedies have been exhausted with the MA-SARA institution, the student may submit a SARA Complaint via this website: https://www.mass.edu/foradmin/sara/complaints.asp
3. The Department shall send a copy of the complaint to the institution that is the subject of the complaint;
4. Within 30 days of the date that the Department sends a copy of the complaint to the institution, the institution must provide a written response to the student and the Department.

Additional Information More information about DHE’s complaint processes can be found here (https://www.mass.edu/forstufam/documents/Final%20DHE%20Complaint%20Policy.pdf).

Smith College will not in any way retaliate against an individual who reports a perceived violation of Smith policy, state, federal, or local law. Further, Smith will not tolerate retaliation by any employee or student.
